

Join us for a discussion with the author of:

How Sex Offender Laws Are Failing Us

Dr. Emily Horowitz

Monday, April 11

6:00 – 7:30 pm

Poetry Center in the Sawyer Library
at Suffolk University

73 Tremont Street
Boston, MA 02108

Please join the Center for Women's Health and Human Rights at Suffolk University and the Sex Offender Policy Reform Initiative of the Criminal Justice Policy Coalition for this important presentation and discussion. Dr. Horowitz, a professor at St. Francis College in Brooklyn, will present the research and insights presented in her book on the drawbacks of public sex offender registries and their collateral consequences followed by Q&A. The event will also include an update on what is going on with this issue here in Massachusetts.

Refreshments served.

Free. Open to the public.

Questions? Contact Rachel Corey | director@cjpc.org or 617-807-0111

Easily accessible by public transportation
Green or Red line to Park Street | 15, 39, 57 Bus Routes

BLACK AND PINK
PRISON ABOLITION NOW!

