THE FEMINIST & THE SEX OFFENDER:

How an unlikely pair of social movements can abolish the sex offense punishment regime and also end sexual violence

with Judith Levine

Thursday, February 28 @ 7:00 pm

Community Church of Boston

(Copley stop on the Green line, across from Trinity Church)

565 Boylston St., Boston, MA

Judith Levine is a writer and activist on sexuality, justice, politics, and social movements. Her work explores the ways history, culture, and politics express themselves in intimate life. She is the author of hundreds of articles and four books, including Harmful to Minors: The Perils of Protecting Children from Sex which won the Los Angeles Time Book Prize and the forthcoming The Feminist & the Sex Offender: How to end sexual violence and abolish the sex offense punishment regime, co-authored with Erica R. Meiners. Judith is a member of the board of directors of the National Center for Reason & Justice.
